SECTION 1: PLAN OVERVIEW

The Executive Employee Insurance Plan is an illustrative fixed-benefit health insurance plan intended to provide predefined monetary benefits for eligible hospitalization, intensive care, specified surgeries, listed day-care procedures, certain illnesses, extended hospital stays, and health check-ups.

The plan follows a fixed-benefit structure. Benefits are payable according to applicable benefit definitions, eligibility requirements, limits, exclusions, and claim conditions. Fixed benefits must not be described as reimbursement of the entire hospital bill.

The benefit amounts and rules in this document are illustrative reference values derived from the Health Shield–907 reference material where supported. They have not been confirmed as official employee insurance benefits.

- Employer Contribution: Not defined
- Employee Contribution: Not defined
- Taxes: Not defined
- Premium by Age or Employee Category: Not defined
- Renewal Premium Terms: Not defined
- Premium Deduction from Salary: Not defined
- Premium Waiver Conditions: Not defined

Important: The annual premium of ₹12,138 and half-yearly installment of ₹6,178 shown in the Health Shield–907 reference relate to a particular illustrative insured profile. They must not be treated as the premium for the Executive Employee Insurance Plan.

SECTION 3: HOSPITAL CASH BENEFIT

The Hospital Cash Benefit provides a fixed daily amount for eligible hospital stays exceeding 24 hours, subject to applicable policy conditions and limits.

Illustrative Benefits

- Initial Daily Hospital Cash Benefit: ₹10,000
- Minimum Hospitalization Duration: More than 24 hours
- Maximum Benefit Days During the First Policy Year: 30 days
- Maximum Benefit Days Per Year Thereafter: 90 days
- Maximum Benefit Days Overall: 900 days
- Benefit Type: Fixed daily benefit, not reimbursement of actual hospital expenses

Example Calculation

For 5 eligible payable hospitalization days:

Daily Benefit × Eligible Payable Days

₹10,000 × 5 = ₹50,000

Illustrative Hospital Cash Benefit: ₹50,000.

The actual employee entitlement, eligibility requirements, and applicable limits must be confirmed against the approved employee policy.

SECTION 4: INTENSIVE CARE UNIT (ICU) BENEFIT

The ICU Benefit provides a predefined daily amount for eligible hospitalization in an Intensive Care Unit.

Illustrative Benefits

- Daily ICU Benefit: ₹20,000
- ICU Eligibility Conditions: Not defined for the employee plan
- Minimum ICU Stay: Not defined
- Maximum ICU Benefit Days: Not separately specified in the reference summary
- Overall ICU Benefit Limit: Not defined
- Interaction with Hospital Cash Benefit: Subject to applicable policy terms

Example Calculation

For 3 eligible ICU days:

₹20,000 × 3 = ₹60,000

Illustrative ICU Benefit: ₹60,000.

This calculation does not establish that ICU and Hospital Cash Benefits can always be paid together.

SECTION 5: MAJOR SURGERY BENEFIT

The Major Surgery Benefit provides a fixed lump-sum benefit for eligible listed surgeries. The payable amount depends on the surgery's classification under the applicable policy.

Illustrative Major Surgery Benefit Basis: ₹10,00,000

Proposed Payout Structure

Surgery Category	Payout Percentage	Illustrative Payout
Category 1	100%	₹10,00,000
Category 2	60%	₹6,00,000
Category 3	40%	₹4,00,000
Category 4	20%	₹2,00,000

Additional Conditions

- Overall Major Surgery Benefit Limit: Up to 10 times the benefit basis, as described in the reference illustration.
- Illustrative Overall Maximum: ₹1,00,00,000.
- Surgery Category Mapping: Not defined for the employee plan.
- Eligible Surgery List: Not provided for the employee plan.
- Repeat Claims for the Same Surgery: Subject to verified policy conditions.
- Benefit Eligibility and Payout: Must be established using the applicable surgery classification and approved policy wording.

Example Calculation

For an eligible Category 2 surgery:

₹10,00,000 × 60% = ₹6,00,000

Illustrative payout: ₹6,00,000.

SECTION 6: DAY-CARE PROCEDURE BENEFIT

The Day-Care Procedure Benefit provides a fixed amount for eligible listed procedures, subject to applicable policy conditions.

Illustrative Benefits

- Benefit Per Eligible Procedure: ₹50,000
- Maximum Eligible Procedures Per Year: 3
- Maximum Eligible Procedures Overall: 30
- Eligible Procedure List: Not provided for the employee plan
- Overall Procedure Limit: Not separately defined
- Combination with Hospital Cash: The reference illustration describes an exception for dialysis and radiotherapy, subject to policy conditions. Applicability to the employee plan is not verified.

Example Calculation

For 2 eligible procedures:

₹50,000 × 2 = ₹1,00,000

Illustrative benefit for 2 eligible procedures: ₹1,00,000, subject to the actual policy's eligibility and claim conditions.

The benefit does not apply automatically to every medical procedure.

SECTION 7: OTHER SURGERY BENEFIT

The Other Surgery Benefit provides a fixed daily amount for eligible surgeries other than those classified under the Major Surgery Benefit, subject to applicable policy conditions.

Illustrative Benefits

- Daily Other Surgery Benefit: ₹25,000
- Minimum Hospitalization Duration: More than 24 hours
- Maximum Benefit Days During the First Policy Year: 15 days
- Maximum Benefit Days Per Year Thereafter: 45 days
- Maximum Benefit Days Overall: 450 days
- Eligible Surgery List: Not provided for the employee plan
- Combination with Hospital Cash: Described as payable together in the reference illustration, subject to policy conditions; applicability to the employee plan is not verified.

Example Calculation

For 4 eligible payable days:

₹25,000 × 4 = ₹1,00,000

Illustrative Other Surgery Benefit: ₹1,00,000.

This benefit is distinct from the Major Surgery Benefit.

SECTION 8: MEDICAL MANAGEMENT BENEFIT

The Medical Management Benefit provides a fixed lump-sum benefit for specified illnesses, subject to applicable eligibility conditions.

Illustrative Benefits

- Lump-Sum Benefit Per Eligible Claim: ₹25,000
- Maximum Claims Per Year: 2
- Maximum Claims Overall: 20

Illustrative Illness List

1. Dengue
2. Malaria
3. Pneumonia
4. Pulmonary Tuberculosis
5. Viral Hepatitis A

Conditions

- The illness must meet the applicable policy's eligibility conditions.
- Hospital admission and other qualifying requirements must be verified.
- The official list of covered illnesses for the employee plan is not confirmed.
- Combination with Hospital Cash or surgery benefits must follow the approved employee policy.

Example Calculation

For one eligible claim:

₹25,000 × 1 = ₹25,000

Illustrative benefit: ₹25,000.

SECTION 9: EXTENDED HOSPITAL STAY BENEFIT

The Extended Hospital Stay Benefit provides a predefined lump-sum payment when one eligible continuous hospital stay exceeds the specified duration.

Illustrative Benefits

- Minimum Continuous Hospitalization: More than 30 days
- Lump-Sum Benefit: ₹1,00,000
- Maximum Claims Per Year: 1
- Maximum Claims Overall: 10
- Definition of Continuous Hospitalization: Not defined for the employee plan
- Claim Documentation: Not defined
- Combination with Other Benefits: Subject to verified policy conditions

Example

If one continuous eligible hospital stay exceeds 30 days, the reference illustration specifies a lump-sum benefit of ₹1,00,000.

The duration refers to one qualifying hospital stay, not the sum of several unrelated shorter stays.

SECTION 10: HEALTH CHECK-UP BENEFIT

The Health Check-up Benefit provides reimbursement of eligible preventive health-check-up expenses, subject to the specified limit and applicable policy conditions.

Illustrative Benefits

- Maximum Reimbursement: ₹5,000
- Payment Basis: Actual eligible expense, up to the limit
- First Benefit Availability: After 3 years of cover, according to the reference illustration
- Subsequent Benefit Availability: 3 years after the previous check-up, according to the reference illustration
- Eligible Tests and Providers: Not defined for the employee plan
- Required Documents: Not defined for the employee plan
- Waiting Period and Eligibility: Must be verified

Example Calculation

If eligible check-up expenses are ₹3,500:

Reimbursement = Minimum of (Eligible Expense, Benefit Limit)

Reimbursement = Minimum of (₹3,500, ₹5,000) = ₹3,500

If eligible expenses are ₹6,000, the illustrative maximum reimbursement would be ₹5,000, subject to the applicable policy terms.

This benefit is not an unconditional cash payment of ₹5,000.

SECTION 11: ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

11.1 Restored Cover

The reference illustration describes a restoration mechanism for an additional eligible major surgery when the yearly major surgery benefit limit has been exhausted, subject to conditions.

- Availability Under Employee Plan: Not confirmed
- Additional Eligible Surgery: Described in the reference as involving a different body system
- Illustrative Additional Benefit Limit: Up to ₹10,00,000
- Maximum Restorations Overall: Up to 10 times in the reference illustration
- Qualifying Conditions: Not verified for the employee plan
- Number of Restorations Per Year: Must be confirmed
- Restrictions and Exclusions: Not defined for the employee plan

The assistant must not state that the entire exhausted surgery benefit is automatically restored.

11.2 Ambulance Benefit

- Illustrative Benefit Amount: ₹1,000
- Availability Under Employee Plan: Not confirmed
- Qualifying Event: Associated with eligible major surgery in the reference illustration
- Requirement for Ambulance Use: Subject to applicable conditions
- Eligible Ambulance Types: Not defined
- Claim Limit: Not defined for the employee plan

This must not be represented as general ambulance coverage for every hospital visit.

11.3 Quick Cash Benefit

The reference illustration describes an advance payment arrangement for certain eligible major surgeries.

- Availability Under Employee Plan: Not confirmed
- Illustrative Advance Percentage: 50% of the applicable surgery benefit
- Eligible Surgery Categories: Category 1 or Category 2 in the reference illustration

- Network Hospital Requirement: A listed network hospital is required in the reference illustration
- Timing of Advance: During the hospital stay, subject to conditions
- Final Claim Adjustment: The advance is adjusted against the final claim
- Employee-Plan Eligibility: Not verified

The advance is not an additional 50% benefit on top of the final surgery benefit.

SECTION 12: BENEFIT COMBINATION RULES

Benefit Combination	Employee Plan Status
